MISSION STATEMENT

I. Mission of the University:

La Salle University, dedicated in the traditions of the Christian Brothers to excellence in teaching and to concern for both ultimate values and for the individual values of its students, is a private Roman Catholic university committed to providing a liberal education of both general and specialized studies.

II. Mission of Athletics:

La Salle University is a Roman Catholic institution of higher education with traditions of the De La Salle Christian Brothers. In that framework, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation of La Salle University is committed to both the spirit and principles set forth by NCAA, Atlantic 10 Conference, Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and La Salle University regulatory guidelines.

The Athletic Department, through its intramural and intercollegiate programs, enables and encourages all students to participate in a wide variety of sports at many levels of competition. Values such as leadership, diligence, determination, and teamwork are emphasized. Good sportsmanship from its athletes and fans is supported.

The University strives to operate its athletic programs within the confines of a fiscally sound plan at a level of intercollegiate competition that is consistent with its philosophical objectives. La Salle University seeks to join other institutions with like commitments to institutional integrity, academic excellence, and to service the community.

Kevin Currie - Director of Athletic Communications

A 1997 graduate of La Salle University, Kevin Currie took the reins as Director of Athletic Communications in February 1999. He had worked in the office for two years prior to his appointment. Kevin's primary responsibilities include production of media guides, game notes and press releases promoting the university's 23 athletics programs.

Prior to becoming a full-time employee at La Salle, Currie networked with the business leaders of Philadelphia at Aronimink Golf Club where he was a caddy for 11 years. Currie also interned with WPVI Channel 6 in Philadelphia while he attended La Salle.

Since coming to La Salle, Currie has also worked at several regional and national tournaments. He has assisted in the coordination of media interviews at the Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Championships and for the 2000 Women's Basketball Final Four in Philadelphia. He has also worked as the Official Scorekeeper for the American Legion Eastern Regional Championships.

Currie's hobbies include golf, music and sports. He is single and resides in Havertown.

GAME DAY INFORMATION

Press Table: The La Salle University men's basketball press row at Tom Gola Arena is opposite the team benches. Accredited media should enter the building through the media entrance on the left side on the Hayman Center when facing the building.

Press Credentials: Requests for credentials should be made in writing at least one week prior to the game. If time permits, credentials will be mailed. All other credentials should be picked up at the Press Gate.

Photographers: Photographers must have their photo passes visible at all times on the sidelines. All photographers must shoot from the baseline.

Press Parking: Parking is very limited. Advanced notice to the Athletic Communications Office is required.

Press Services: Complete individual and team statistics are compiled by the Stat Crew computerized statistics program which is staff by Harvey Pollack, Susan Senner, and their statisticians. Statistics will be distributed on press row at halftime and in the press room. Statistics will also be distributed in the media room post-game prior to the coaches interview sessions. The Media Room is located on the second floor of the Hayman Center.

Post-Game Interviews: Both head coaches will be available in the interview room after a 10-minute cooling off period. La Salle coach Speedy Morris will go first, followed by the visiting coach. Access to the dressing rooms is determined on a per-game basis by each coach.

Telephones: Telephones are available for the media's usage in the press room and on press row.

Media Guide Credits: *The 2000-01 La Salle University men's basketball media guide was produced and edited by the office of Athletic Communications. Why we are the Explorers

La Salle University's nickname - The Explorers - was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game on campus in the early 1930's. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America. In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French Educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

Kale Beers returns to the Tom Gola Arena for his fifth season to broadcast men's and women's basketball as well as to serve as the Coordinator of the La Salle Basketball Radio Network (LRN) and the "Voice of Explorer Basketball".

A 1995 graduate of La Salle University (BA Communication), Beers enjoyed his seventh season in professional baseball, serving as Director of Broadcasting for the Double A Affiliate of Major League Baseball's Anaheim Angels. Beers' first assignment in Erie came during the SeaWolves' farewell season in the New York-Penn League (1998).

Beers learned the art and business of broadcasting rather swiftly as he created and formed the La Salle Basketball Radio Network from ground up just fifteen months after earning his degree from La Salle. In its four years of operation, the LRN has grown to broadcast close to 40 men's and women's basketball games during the season in the nation's fourth largest media market.

Beers broke into professional broadcasting with stops at Burlington, NC (Rookie - Cleveland) of the Appalachian League, where he served as the Director of Broadcasting/Media Relations. He began his career at Reading, PA (Class AA - Phillies) of the Eastern League, where he earned his first on-air experience as a broadcast intern for the R-Phillies.

Beers' first taste of professional baseball came in 1994 when he interned for the Philadelphia Phillies during his junior year at La Salle. Beers would stay on for two additional seasons in the Phillies' Video Services Department and contribute to game day and external operations that included Silver and Bronze - 1995 season highlight video and the 1996 Major League Baseball All-Star Game.

Kale's responsibilities for the Erie SeaWolves included broadcasting every game, handling all baseball-related media requests and issues, producing all game broadcasts and overseeing broadcast relations. He assumed responsibility for the complete in-house production of the SeaWolves' annual Media and Information Guide which earned the Distinction of "Best in Class A" in 1998 - Beers first effort at producing a media guide.

Beers was born in Emmaus, PA and is a veteran of the United States Army where he served six years (two of active duty) as a Cavalry Scout.

Beers and Degler shown working together in the 1999-2000 Men's Basketball season.

Steve Degler enters his fourth season as the color analyst on the La Salle Basketball Radio Network. Degler has also been the voice of the Reading Phillies for the past nine seasons.

During his time with the R-Phillies, they have won the 1995 Eastern League Championship and in June, 1998 Baseball America ranked the city of Reading as the No. 3 Minor League Baseball City in the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

Along with his work with the R-Phillies, Degler has worked over the last two years, as a fill-in as host of the pre- and post-game shows on the Phillies Philadelphia Phillies radio network. Degler has also worked for ten years as radio/TV broadcaster and public address announcer for football and basketball at Kutztown University.

Degler has been involved for 12 years as radio and TV broadcaster for high school and college soccer, football and basketball games in Berks, Lebanon and Schuylkill counties, calling numerous district and state tournament contests, including four state championship games.

He prides himself in the fact that he has broadcast nearly 1,200 consecutive Reading Phillies games from April, 1992, through May, 2000. With all of these baseball and basketball games under his belt, he has become a voting member for John Wooden Award, given annually to the top men's college basketball player in the nation.

A 1988 graduate of Kutztown University, with a Bachelor of Science in Telecommunications, he and his wife, Karen, and daughters, Sarah and Hannah resides in Hamburg, PA.

Explorers on the Radio

All games except otherwise noted will be broadcast on WPEN 950 AM. Pre-game show begins 30 minutes prior to game time.

The Coaches

Head Coach William "Speedy" Morris

Having led La Salle to more wins than any other coach, William "Speedy" Morris is in his 15th season in charge of the Explorers' men's basketball team.

Morris picked up his 225th win with the men's program on February 15, 2000, in a 59-56 victory over St. Joseph's in a nationally-televised game. He is the sixth Philadelphia Big Five coach to reach that mark. His 200th win also came in a televised game, with a 72-68 victory at Virginia Tech on January 27, 1998.

The 16th coach at La Salle, Morris enters this season with a 226-186 (.549) record, but including his stint as La Salle women's coach (43-17) and high school boy's coach (388-96), his overall coaching mark is 657-298 (.688).

Hired at La Salle in 1984 as the first full-time women's coach, Morris recorded the highest winning percentage (.717) of La Salle women's coaches. After two seasons, he was named the Explorers' men's coach and became the first coach in NCAA Division I history to go from head coach of a women's program to the same position in a men's program.

Morris has guided La Salle into the NCAA Tournament four times (1992, 1990, 1989, 1988) and twice into the NIT (1991, 1987), including a runner-up finish in 1986-87, his first season. In his first six seasons as men's coach, the Explorers qualified for postseason berths. While the Explorers were members of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, the team won the tournament title four times and was co-champion in the regular season another time.

Over the years, Morris has received many honors. Twice he won or shared the MAAC Coach of the Year award. He was also named the 1989 and 1990 District 3 Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and was voted the Eastern Coach of the Year in 1990. He was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year three times by the Philadelphia B'nai B'rith Sports Lodge. In September 1995, Morris was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

The 1990 NCAA Tournament victory over Southern Mississippi in Hartford on March 15 was Morris' 100th as La Salle's men's coach. Only three other Division I coaches have won that many games in their first four seasons - current Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim, North Carolina State's legendary coach of the '40s and early '50s, Everett Case, and Roy Williams of Kansas, who achieved the mark after Morris.

The 1989-90 campaign was a historical highlight for La Salle. In addition to posting the school's best-ever 30-2 record (29-1 during the regular-season), La Salle ran off 22 consecutive victories, a school record, going from Jan. 6 through a 79-75 loss to Clemson in the NCAA Tournament on March 17 without a loss.

In 1991-92, Morris led La Salle to its sixth straight postseason appearance and its fourth Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) and NCAA appearance in five years. The Explorers' exciting last-second victory over Manhattan in the MAAC final and their heart-breaking, two-point loss to Seton Hall in the NCAA Tournament were two of college basketball's most-watched games during March Madness.

Morris' debut in 1986-87 also produced some stirring moments, as La Salle defeated Villanova, Niagara, Illinois State and Arkansas-Little Rock to reach the NIT championship game against Southern Mississippi, where the Explorers lost, 84-80.

While the women's coach, Morris took the Explorers to the NCAA Tournament in 1985-86, after winning the MAAC title, and finished the season with a 21-9 record.

At the scholastic level, he posted a 347-82 record in 14 seasons at Roman Catholic, guiding the Cahillites to one city title, six Catholic League championships, two National Catholic Tournament titles and four 30-win seasons. He then led Penn Charter to its first Inter-Ac League crown in 12 years, before leaving for La Salle.

A native of Philadelphia, Morris and his wife, Mimi, live in the Roxborough section. They have four children - Keith, a former guard at La Salle; Brian, a former manager at La Salle, Margaret Mary, also a La Salle graduate, and Christopher, a junior at La Salle.

Morris picked up his 200th career victory the same night the Explorers defeated Virginia Tech for the school's 1100th win of all-time.

The Story behind the Nickname...

There may be different theories as to how "Speedy" Morris acquired his nickname, but here is the answer, directly from the source:

"I was in seventh grade and on the grammar school team at St. John's in Manyunk. We had a little gym that also served as a cafeteria. Before we could practice, we'd have to move the tables away.

"It didn't take long to figure out that if I came a little late for practice, I wouldn't have to help move the tables. Pretty soon, Gerry Boyle, our coach, caught on and made me do 100 laps around the gym, which isn't as bad as it sounds, since that gym would make Roman Catholic's (where he used to coach) look like the Palestra.

"Anyhow, along about the 25th lap, I started to go slowly, which wasn't too far from the speed I had been going. Anyhow, Gerry started yelling, "C'mon Speedy, let's get going" and that name has stuck ever since."

Which, when you think about it, is ironic, because the coach that Speedy, who wasn't so speedy, succeeded at La Salle, Lefty Ervin, wasn't lefthanded, either.

Associate Head Coach Roland Houston

Associate head coach Roland Houston, knew the distance between Martin Luther King High in Philadelphia to La Salle University was approximately five miles. Yet, it took Roland Houston 21 years to make the trip.

Houston, who joined Speedy Morris' Explorer staff in mid-September of 1999, has done quite a bit of traveling since his high school graduation in 1978. That travel took him to the University of Rhode Island, and such overseas basketball stops as Nice, LeMans and Limoges, all in France, then on to Spain, Argentina and Israel.

Among his most memorable visits were to Limoges, where he caught up with an old friend and rival, former La Salle and West Catholic High great Michael Brooks, who still maintains residence in France. "Michael and I had played against each other and with each other a good while back in Philadelphia and it was great being with him and competing with and against him," Houston said.

When he enrolled at Rhode Island, his coach was Jack Kraft, who had coached Villanova to 11 post-season tournaments before heading to New England. "I was the first player coach Kraft took from Philadelphia," the 39-year-old Houston said, "and I still try to stay in touch with him since he's not too far away down in Stone Harbor (New Jersey)."

At Rhode Island, in what was then called the Eastern 8 before becoming the Atlantic 10, Houston played four seasons, started for three and was captain in his senior year. But all of his time wasn't taken up with hoops. As a communication major, he wrote for the school newspaper, produced jazz shows and did an occasional stint on the campus station.

While overseas, he got a taste of coaching and the business side of basketball so when he returned to the United States, he was prepared for life after playing. He became involved in several ventures, including acting as a consultant for NBA players and would-be NBA players. But he always had his eyes on getting into coaching full tilt and that's where he is now, working with Morris, fellow assistants John Gallagher and Mike McCarron, and administrative assistant Rich Prendergast.

Born in South Philadelphia, Houston transferred from Southern High to Martin Luther King early in his career and continued on his journey which has now taken him, wife Lisa, and three-year-old daughter, Zuri, to La Salle University.

Assistant Coach John Gallagher

John Gallagher is now in his second season as an assistant coach with the Explorers. When he was hired prior to the 1999-2000 season, Gallagher, at the ripe age of 22, was the youngest assistant coach Division I basketball. Despite this, he brought plenty of experience with him.

Gallagher served as the Director of Main Line Basketball for the Sonny Hill League for two years and coached in the high school league. He was the creator and founder of the Delaware Valley Elite AAU Program.

In his playing days, Gallagher was a guard at St. Joseph's University for three years. He was a member of their magical Sweet 16 run in the NCAA Tournament and played against top-ranked Kentucky in the tourney. John was also a starter for three years at Cardinal O'Hara High School where he earned All-City Honorable Mention and All-Catholic Honors his senior season.

With his addition to the La Salle staff, Gallagher became the first of a basketball-wealthy family to enter the coaching ranks. His sister Ann was the point guard for the Explorers' Women's Basketball team from 1993-97 and another sister Joan was a four-year starter from 1992-96 at Boston College. His eldest sister Kathleen, is a professor in the History Department here at La Salle.

Assistant Coach Mike McCarron

Mike McCarron, serving his first year as a member of Speedy Morris' staff at La Salle University, has been through it all while playing basketball - CYO ball as a sixth-grader at St. Bartholomew's in Northeast Philadelphia, a two-year starter at Northeast Catholic, a four-year standout at Eastern College in St. Davids, PA, and then two years opposing the Harlem Globetrotters.

That was very good schooling for what he has done most recently - coaching. His most recent experience was as an assistant for six years at Northeast Catholic, from where he graduated in 1984, and one season at Holy Family College in Philadelphia. And when he starts lecturing on a certain phase of the game - foul shooting - players listen.

He holds the Philadelphia Catholic League record for most free throws made on a perfect performance in a game, 17-for-17, against eventual champion La Salle High. Hardly a surprise -- he shot 89% for the season.

That success continued in his college career at Eastern, where he posted an 88% mark, while earning Most Valuable Player honors in NAIA District 19 as a senior and piling up numerous awards at the school.

He finished at Eastern with 1228 points and 1042 assists, and, because he is a strict fundamentalist and was a team player, he is prouder of the assist numbers. As for his foul-shooting ability, he recalls working on it as far back as sixth grade and never stopping during his playing days.

Two former Explorers helped McCarron learn his art and fundamentals. Buddy Kline, a La Salle guard in the mid-50s and who started him shooting 15-footers at that early age, is his uncle. His coach at Northeast Catholic was Joe Rapczynski, a La Salle frontcourt reserve in the early '70s.

McCarron and his wife, Eileen, a physician's assistant at Temple University Hospital, live in Northeast Philadelphia.

Executive Assistant Coach Rich Prendergast

Now in his 17th year at La Salle as an executive assistant, including 15 with the Men's Basketball team, Rich Prendergast continues as a volunteer on Speedy Morris' teams. Prendergast coached in the Philadelphia Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) and in the Catholic League high school system.

Before joining the La Salle women's staff under Morris, Prendergast directed the girls' team at Philadelphia's Hallahan High to two playoff berths in four seasons.

In 1986, Prendergast was honored with the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to the La Salle women's intercollegiate athletic programs. The award was named after the university's first Women's Director of Athletics.

Prendergast, a 1960 La Salle graduate, lives in Stone Harbor, NJ. His family includes wife Jane, and four daughters - two of whom, Maria and Catherine, are La Salle graduates, Lori, who lives in Clarksville, TN, and the youngest, Colleen, a senior at La Salle.

Prendergast is the owner of ICS, a full-service direct mail production company in Philadelphia.

Shown here in 1991, Prendergast is in his 17th season with Morris and the Explorers.

2000-01 Preview

Entering the 2000-01 season, the La Salle Men's Basketball team looks to improve upon its 11-17 record from last season. La Salle lost four players from last season's squad, including former walk-on Mike Sidebotham and 2000-point scorer Donnie Carr.

The challenge for this year's squad is replacing the 19.7 points and over 39 minutes per game that Carr averaged during his career. The two leading candidates to replace Carr's points are senior Victor Thomas and junior Rasual Butler. Thomas has already poured in 1,194 career points and Butler has scored 814 points in two seasons.

Thomas has steadily increased his scoring in each season as an Explorer. In his freshman campaign, Thomas scored 11.3 points per game; as a sophomore that jumped to 15.5, and 16.2 in his junior season. Along with improving his scoring totals, Thomas also increased his rebounding totals in each season. He started by averaging 4.7 rebounds per game as a freshman, then 5.9 as a sophomore, and 8.7 as a junior. Thomas' rebound total last season ranked second in the Atlantic 10 Conference. He could become one of the top 10 rebounders in school history if his average continues to rise this season.

Butler is one of the most promising Explorers in recent memory. In 21 games as freshman, he scored 14.2 points and grabbed 4.0 rebounds per game. In his sophomore campaign, Butler upped those averages to 18.4 and 5.3. By increasing these totals, he so impressed the Atlantic 10 coaches that they voted him a Third Team All-Conference member.

Butler is also one of 50 players named to the pre-season Wooden Award list. This award is given annually to the top player in the nation. Butler becomes the fourth Explorer since 1990 to be named to this list. The three others include Lionel Simmons, who won the award in 1990, Randy Woods in 1992, and Kareem Townes in 1995.

With Thomas and Butler leading the Explorers charge, the rest of the lineup will be well balanced. The roster includes four seniors, two juniors, two sophomores, and three freshmen.

The senior group, including Thomas, also includes James Jordan, Garrett Bragg, and Anwar Wilson. All three of these players will be key components to the Explorers inside game. Jordan displayed an offensive outburst last season. In his first two seasons at 20th and Olney, Jordan scored 45 points. In his junior campaign, he scored 119 points averaging 4.5 points per game. Jordan's coming out party came in the Explorers improbable 80-49 win at Xavier. In that game, Jordan played just 24 minutes, but nailed 5-of-6 shots from the floor and was 2-of-2 from the line, en route to a career-high 12 points. He also grabbed six rebounds.

Bragg, who has been hampered by injuries his entire career, hopes to put those pains behind him. Bragg played well this summer before falling to an injury. His best performance last season came in the Alabama Traditions Classic, when he scored eight points and grabbed 11 rebounds in 26 minutes.

Wilson also had a coming out party of sorts last season. While averaging just 12.3 minutes per game, Wilson led the team with 42 blocked shots. He also grabbed 100 rebounds, the fifth highest total on the team. His best performance came in the Cable Car Classic against Butler. In that game, Wilson grabbed 11 rebounds and blocked six shots, while playing in a career-high 38 minutes.

In the junior class with Butler is Julian Blanks. Blanks has been one of the top point guards in the conference in his first two seasons, dishing out 232 assists.

Blanks has been able to control the game by not turning the ball over. In his two seasons at point guard, Blanks has a 1.3-to-1 assist to turnover ratio. His 232 assists include increasing his freshman total by 38. While doing this, his turnover total dropped by nine from his freshman to sophomore season. With 134 assists this season, Blanks would move into the top 10 in Explorer history in career assists.

The sophomore class includes Dwayne Jones and John Clark. Jones will add depth to the backcourt. Last season, Jones scored eight points in 20 minutes of action. His top outings were scoring three points against Xavier and George Washington. Clark, a transfer walk-on from Catholic, becomes eligible this fall and will also add depth to the backcourt.

The freshman class includes Rasheed Quadri, Sean Mulholland, and Joel-Jean Baptiste. Quadri and Mulholland will supply depth, scoring, and defense in the backcourt. Quadri was one of three 1,000-point scorers in his high school team that won back-to-back Boston city championships. Mulholland scored nearly 1,200 points in his high school career and also had a 3-to-1 assist to turnover ratio. Baptiste will add his bruising frame to the frontcourt. The Explorers will use Baptiste's 6'9", 250-pound frame to create room in the lane.

Victor Thomas enters the season as the 31st leading scorer in school history.

James Jordan became an offensive force in 1999-2000 and he was voted as co-captain with Thomas for this season.

1999-2000 Year in Review

GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

The 1999-2000 season got off to a promising start for the Explorers as they won their first three games, and six of the first seven. Among these six wins were two road victories, including one over Northwestern, and a neutral court win. Three home victories, including one over Big 5 rival Pennsylvania, rounded out the six wins. The lone loss of the first seven games came to Alabama in the Crimson Tides' Tournament.

Donnie Carr got off to a hot start in the early going, averaging 20.3 points through the first six games. He was not alone in his hot start, as Victor Thomas averaged 17.4 and Rasual Butler averaged 20.0 points per game over the first seven contests. The team was outscoring their opponents by nearly ten points per game (73.3 to 63.6) in the early going.

Things took a dramatic turn for the worse the day of the Explorers seventh game. La Salle defeated Drexel that day by a score of 70-54, but the real story was who didn't play. For the first time in his Explorer career, Carr missed a game. This would be the first of five games he missed due to being hospitalized for pneumonia. Not that Carr was the entire story either, as center Garrett Bragg missed this game, which was the first of four he would miss, with a stress fracture in his foot. With these two out of the line-up, La Salle would lose its next eight games.

Among these eight games, La Salle lost in the Carrier Dome to Syracuse despite 25 points and 10 rebounds from Butler and 17 points and 13 rebounds from Thomas. The Explorers also dropped their first four Atlantic 10 conference games, a game to Big 5 foe Villanova, and two heart-breaking losses in the Cable Car Classic. At the Cable Car, the Explorers were held to their lowest point total -36 points - in school history in their opening round loss to Butler. In the consolation game, La Salle fell to Texas A&M on an overtime buzzer beater.

Despite this tough stretch, Carr returned to action in the Villanova game and Bragg had returned two games earlier at Duquesne. Having fallen short in four straight games in Philadelphia, the Explorers headed to Ohio for dates with Xavier and Dayton. The Xavier game turned out to be one of the biggest games of the year for La Salle. Hitting on all cylinders, the Explorers raced to a 31-23 halftime lead. Then La Salle took over in the second half and cruised to an 80-49 win. La Salle had four players in double figures, including an improbable 12-point, six-rebound performance from center James Jordan. In scoring his career-high, Jordan made 5-of-6 shots from the field and both foul shots.

After this victory, the season see-saw back-and-forth as the team closed the 4-7. Among these 11 games, the Explorers picked up wins over Virginia Tech, George Washington, St. Joseph's - on national television - and Duquesne.

During the season, several accomplishments were reached by individual members of the team. Donnie Carr became the fifth Explorer to top the 2000-point plateau, and finished with 2,067 points, fourth best in school history. Victor Thomas topped the 1,000-barrier in the Explorers win at Xavier. Thanks to Gary Johnson, of the NCAA, and Walt Meyer, an NCAA historian, they figured out that Carr and Thomas became the sixth 2000-1000 point teammates in Atlantic 10 history. The list of teammates they join are, in order: Keith Herron and Reggie Robinson of Villanova, James Bailey and Abdel Anderson of Rutgers, Carlton Owens and Tom Garrick of Rhode Island, Mark Macon and Mik Kilgore of Temple, and Jim McCoy, Tony Barbee, Harper Williams, and William Herndon of Massachusetts.

Along with breaking the 1,000-point plateau, Thomas was climbing the charts in among the rebounds leaders also. Thomas nearly doubled his career rebounding total in one season. He entered the 1999-2000 season with 290 career rebounds in 55 games. Last season, he pulled down 244 rebounds in 28 games.

Not to be lost on all the scoring, was the man responsible for getting them the ball. Point guard Julian Blanks finished as the team leader in assists with 135. He did this against 83 turnovers, which gave him the sixth-best assist-to-turnover ratio in the conference at 1.59. His leadership at the point help the Explorers have more or equal amounts assists and turnovers in 15 games. La Salle ranked 10th in the Atlantic 10 in assists per game (12.22) and sixth in assist/turnover ratio at 0.92. The Explorers as a team had 330 assists and 358 turnovers. The Explorers had the second lowest turnover percentage in the Atlantic 10 at 13.3 per game.

The Explorers found home to still be sweet as they went 6-5 in the Tom Gola Arena. By finishing with a 6-5 record at home this season, the Explorers have raised the all-time record in the building to 35-9, including 15-7 since the refurbishing.

The team opened its season by defeating Mount St. Mary's 73-64, in the season opener for both teams.

Senior guard Donnie Carr led the way for the Explorers with 28 points, on 9-of-22 shooting, and also grabbed seven rebounds. Junior forward Victor Thomas added 19 points and seven rebounds for the Explorers.

Afterwards, La Salle head coach Speedy Morris said, "I was happy with the effort. I thought we played much better defense in the second half." Referring to junior center Garrett Bragg, Morris said, "I thought Garrett played his best game since his freshman year. He battled through last year after having a nine-month stress fracture in his foot." Bragg finished with six points and eight rebounds in 31 minutes of action, which is a career-high.

For the Mountaineers, Terrence Wilson led the way with 20 points and eight rebounds. Greg Harris added 18 points. Harris said afterwards, "I love playing against Donnie Carr. We have the same type game and I think we bring out the best in each other."

By defeating Central Connecticut State, 70-60, the team opened its season 2-0.

It was the two Roman Catholic alums on the La Salle roster that did in the Blue Devils. Sophomore forward Rasual Butler scored 21 points and grabbed nine rebounds, while senior Donnie Carr added 20 points, six rebounds, and four assists.

Afterwards, La Salle head coach Speedy Morris said, "I thought we played great defense tonight and rebounded very well. Plus, I think our big men are playing well."

Morris was referring to the two-headed center of juniors Garrett Bragg and James Jordan who combined for just three points, but grabbed 12 rebounds.

With his 20 points Tuesday night, Carr moved into ninth place on the Explorers all-time scoring list with 1,703 points. In this game, Carr passed two players, two-time Academic All-American Jack Hurd (1,693 points) and former NBA Three-Point Shooting Champion Tim Legler (1,699 points).

The Explorers opened the Alabama Traditions Classic shooting a torrid 62.5% from three-point range. They connected on 10-of-16 three-pointers en route to an 85-62 victory.

Sophomore Rasual Butler shot 10-of-16 from the field, including 5-of-6 from three-point range, on his way to a game-high 26 points.

The Explorers opened the second half with a 13-5 run over the opening five minutes. That opened up a 54-43 lead. They then went on a 20-6 run from the 13:00 minute mark to the 4:30 mark to spread their lead to 76-53.

Butler was aided by Donnie Carr and Victor Thomas, who combined for 40 points on 14-of-34 shooting. Thomas also grabbed 10 rebounds, in what would be the first of 11 double-doubles.

Junior Garrett Bragg notched season highs in points (8) and rebounds (11). That rebound total also was his career-high.

Facing a solid host school for the championship, La Salle shot the ball well (40.6%) and took care of the ball (8 turnovers), but it wasn't enough. Alabama shot 61.1% for the game, including (64%) in the second half, on their way to an 85-70 victory.

Victor Thomas recorded his second straight double-double with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Donnie Carr added 16 points and five assists.

In the first half, the Crimson Tide gradually built a 10-point lead, but the Explorers eventually cut to three with 7:21 left. Alabama then outscored La Salle 14-4 the rest of the half, to take a 41-28 lead into intermission.

Alabama stretched its lead as high as 21 points on two occasions, while the Explorers were able to cut the lead to 11 two times. Jeremy Hays, who scored 24 points in the first half, injured his knee early in the second half and would not return. Five Crimson Tide players combined for 40 of the 44 second half points on 16-of-25 shooting. The Explorers got 27 points from their big guns - Carr, Thomas, and Rasual Butler.

La Salle continued its road swing with a stop in Evanston, to face off against Northwestern. The Explorers, who had made as many free throws (8) as field goals (8) in the first half, were able to pull away in the second half and score a 62-44 win.

While placing four players in double figures, the Explorers also forced a season-high 19 turnovers. Leading the way was Victor Thomas, who scored 19 points and grabbed nine rebounds. He was aided by 15 points from Rasual Butler, while Donnie Carr and Julian Blanks combined for 24 points and 13 assists.

The key to this game was the Explorers defense. They held the Wildcats to 14 field goals - seven in each half - and 3-of-13 from three-point range. While forcing a season-high 19 turnovers, the Explorers also grabbed a season-high 10 steals.

The Wildcats two leading scorers - Ben Johnson and Steve Lepore - combined to shoot 3-of-17 from the field while scoring only eight points.

Playing in their first City Series game, the Explorers defeated the Penn Quakers 83-76.

The Roman Catholic connection of Rasual Butler and Donnie Carr each scored 25 points, while combining to shoot 13-of-24 from the field. Both were equal opportunity scorers for La Salle, with Butler scoring 13 in the first half and 12 in the second. Carr on the other hand, had 12 in the first and 13 in the second.

Though La Salle made seven fewer field goals than the Quakers, the Explorers made 29-of-33 free throws, including 22-of-25 in the second half.

La Salle never trailed in this game as Butler buried a three-pointer just under two minutes into the game. The Explorers stretched their first half lead to 11, and it was as high as 13 in the second half. The Quakers got as close as four with :30 remaining on a three-pointer by Michael Jordan, but were unable to make another shot. Carr and Butler hit 3-of-4 free throws after that to create the final margin.

Playing without Donnie Carr for the first time in his career, and also missing Garrett Bragg, La Salle pulled off an improbable 70-54 win over Drexel in the Palestra.

Carr missed the first five straight games after being hospitalized by pneumonia. He had started 88 straight games prior to this game. Bragg was out for the first of four games with a stress fracture in his foot.

Rasual Butler scored 26 points and Victor Thomas had his fourth double-double in five games to pace the Explorers.

La Salle did its damage in this one from behind the arc and at the foul line. The Explorers buried 9-of-17 three-pointers, while holding Drexel to just 4-of-21 from three-point range. While the Explorers were hot from three-point range, they were also parading to the foul line. La Salle made 25-of-28 from the free throw line, while the Dragons were just 6-of-10.

La Salle made the trip to Syracuse to square off against the Orangemen again missing Donnie Carr and Garrett Bragg. The Explorers, despite 27.7% shooting, hung tough with their hosts, before falling 68-52.

Rasual Butler, Victor Thomas, and Julian Blanks combined for 47 points, while each played the entire game. The Explorers were able to stay close because they controlled the glass, outrebounding the Orangemen 42-39, including 20-10 on the offensive boards. Butler recorded his first double-double, while Thomas notched his fifth of the season.

Syracuse was powered by Jason Hart, Etan Thomas, and Ryan Blackwell. Hart recorded a team-high 19 points and a game-high eight assists. Etan Thomas had 14 points, as did Ryan Blackwell, with Blackwell also grabbing 13 rebounds. The trio combined to shoot 18-of-34 for the game.

The Orange took control in the second half with an 8-0 run to extend their lead to 17 points. La Salle got as close as nine points after a Butler three-pointer with 2:27 remaining, but they did make another field goal the remainder of the game.

The Explorers made their first appearance in the Cable Car Classic since the 1972-73 season. In the opener, they faced former MCC opponent Butler.

In a defensive struggle, La Salle fell 43-36, as the teams combined to shoot 26.6% (29-of-109) from the field. Rasual Butler scored a game-high 15 points, but he turned the ball over six times.

The Bulldogs had just one player - Andrew Graves - score in double figures, with 11 points. Butler's defense was the key to the game. They snagged nine steals, and forced 17 Explorer turnovers.

La Salle made just two baskets over the final 7:30 of the game, with Butler making them both.

The Explorer defense also had an excellent game. Sophomore Anwar Wilson blocked a career-high six shots. Wilson and James Jordan each pulled down 11 rebounds, with both notching career-highs.

In the consolation game, La Salle would face Texas A&M for the fourth time in their history. It took a buzzer beater to decide this one, as the Aggies won 70-69 on a last second prayer.

Bernard King, who scored a team-high 21 points, banked in a three-pointer with Rasual Butler in his face as time expired. King also grabbed 10 rebounds and handed out four assists.

La Salle was led by Butler's career-high 29-point effort. He also pulled down 10 rebounds, while playing all 40 minutes. Freshman Aleksandar Pavlovic scored a career-high 16 points off the bench in 23 minutes of action.

The Aggies won this game by shooting 48.4% from the field, including 53.1% in the second half.

Butler was named to the all-tournament team for his 44-point, 12-rebound effort.

La Salle returned to the East Coast to play its first conference game of the season at Duquesne. The Dukes won the game 83-63, continuing a streak in which the home team won for the ninth straight game in the series.

The Dukes shot 45.6% for the game, including 58.3% from three-point range. They were led by Wayne Smith and Charles Stanfield, who each scored 17 points. Smith also had team-highs with 12 rebounds and seven assists.

The Explorers got 24 points from Rasual Butler and 17 points from Victor Thomas and Julian Blanks.

After trailing by eight at halftime, the Explorers were outscored 17-7 over the opening 7:30 minutes of the second half. The Dukes spread their lead as high as 24, with 5:15 remaining.

The Explorers had rallied from a 13-point first half deficit to tie the game at 33-33. The Dukes then closed the half on an 8-0 run over the final five minutes.

Playing in their arena for the first time in a month, the Explorers dropped their fifth straight game, losing 66-51, despite 24 points and nine rebounds from Victor Thomas and the return of Donnie Carr.

Thomas nailed 10-of-13 from the field, while playing all 40 minutes. Taking Thomas' statistics out of the totals, the Explorers shot 11-of-38 (28.9%) from the field.

Carr played for the first time since the Pennsylvania game on December 7. He returned to the line-up despite being as much as 20 pounds lighter than before the illness. He would score eight points in 29 minutes of action.

The Bonnies played four players in double figures, led by Patricio Prato's 15 points. After tying the game at 39-39 with 11:10 remaining, St. Bonaventure went on a 18-5 run over the next 6:10 to take control of the game.

The key for the Bonnies was the 20 offensive rebounds they grabbed. They outrebounded the Explorers 12-2 on the offensive glass in the second half.

La Salle played its last out-of-conference game of the season at the Pavilion, when they squared off against Villanova.

The Wildcats won this Big 5 battle 80-72, in a game that Donnie Carr tried to take over in spite of himself. Carr, in his second game back from pneumonia, scored 16 points in 30 minutes, shooting 8-of-18 from the field.

Victor Thomas and Rasual Butler scored 21 and 19 points respectively to keep the Explorers in the game.

This game was decided on the free throw line, as the Wildcats took and made 10 more free throws than La Salle.

The Wildcats were led by Malik Allen and Aaron Matthews, who each scored 16 points. Villanova had three other players in double-figures as they outscored the Explorers by 12 in the second half to pull out the win.

A James Jordan layup gave the Explorers an 11-point lead with 17:12 remaining in the game. Villanova outscored La Salle 27-9 over the next 10 minutes to forge a 63-56 lead. La Salle would get no closer than seven points the rest of the game.

La Salle dropped its seventh straight game overall - second straight at home - and ninth straight to Rhode Island, as the Rams came away with a 75-66 decision over the Explorers in Atlantic 10 Conference action.

The Rams used a 22-4 first half run to take control. La Salle had clawed back to tie the game at 16-16, then Rhode Island ran off 22 of the final 26 points of the half. When the Rams hit their first basket of the second half, their lead was stretched to 20. The Explorers got as close as seven after a three-pointer by Victor Thomas with 3:38 remaining in the game.

Thomas led the Explorers with a season-high 30 points, on 10-18 shooting. This total was one shy of his career-high. The only other Explorer in double figures was Rasual Butler, who scored 13 points, but shot just 5-of-18.

Rhode Island, who broke a 10-game losing streak with this win, was led by Zach Marbury's 20 points and Tavorris Bell added 19 points and a team-high six rebounds.

The Explorers fell for the eighth straight game overall - third straight at home - as the visiting Temple Owls scored a 72-50 decision over the Explorers in Atlantic 10 Conference and Philadelphia Big 5 action.

The Owls used a 24-6 run over the opening 10:20 to open a big lead that the Explorers couldn't overcome. La Salle could only cut Temple's lead to 20 with 10:10 remaining in the game. Temple used a 12-2 run over the next 3:32 to stretch the lead back to 30.

La Salle got 20 points and five rebounds from sophomore Rasual Butler and 13 points and nine rebounds from junior Victor Thomas. Butler and Thomas combined to shoot only 13-of-33 from the field and 5-of-18 from three-point range against the vaunted Temple zone.

The Owls were led by senior Quincy Wadley and junior Lynn Greer, who each scored 14 points. They combined to shoot 11-of-22 from the field and 5-of-13 from three-point range. The Owls shot 41.3% from the field, while holding the Explorers to 27.3%.

The Explorers broke an eight-game losing streak by defeating Xavier 80-49. The win was the first-ever for La Salle in the Cincinnati Gardens.

The Explorers broke open the game in the second half when they shot 59.4% from the field and outscored the Musketeers 49-26. La Salle was led by Donnie Carr's 22 points. The Explorers also got 19 points and six rebounds from Victor Thomas, 16 points and six assists from Rasual Butler, and a career-high 12 points from James Jordan.

Thomas became the 40th player in La Salle University history to score 1,000 points. He broke the plateau with a put back basket less than two minutes into the game.

The improbable victory broke the Explorers eight-game losing streak overall, a nine-game streak to Xavier in the Cincinnati Gardens, and broke Xavier's 24-game home court winning streak.

La Salle hung on to defeat Virginia Tech, 71-64. The Explorers placed four players in double figures to snap a three-game home-losing streak.

Senior guard Donnie Carr led all scorers with 24 points, including 12-of-15 from the free throw line.

Carr was aided by sophomore Rasual Butler's 15 points, sophomore Julian Blanks' 14 points and junior James Jordan's 11 points.

Dennis Mims' 17 points, 15 of which came in the second half, led Virginia Tech. Rolan Roberts added 16 points and a game-high eight rebounds.

Afterwards, La Salle head coach Speedy Morris said, "I was pleased with our defensive effort tonight. We took care of the ball and made the free throws down the stretch to seal the win." Carr added, "We set a goal for ourselves to begin playing the best ball when we entered February, and I think tonight was a step in the right direction. We need to carry this over to the road."

The Explorers scored their second straight home victory, with a 77-68 win over George Washington.

La Salle shot better than 50% (53.6%) for the first time all season, and held the Colonials to 31.5% from the field.

The Explorers were led by Rasual Butler's 27 points and nine rebounds. Senior Donnie Carr added 21 points, six assists, and five rebounds and Victor Thomas pitched in 18 points and nine rebounds.

For the first time all season, La Salle played a zone defense to try to slow down the high scoring Colonials. The defensive pressure also forced the Colonials to alter their game plan. GW launched 28 three-pointers, making just three (10.7%).

The person most affected by the zone was the nation's leading scorer - SirValiant Brown. Brown, who came in averaging 25.0 points per game, scored 16 points. His shooting numbers tell the story though. He was 5-of-27 from the field, including 1-of-14 from three-point range.

The Explorers won their second straight game, and in the meantime, snapped a three-game road losing streak with a 59-56 victory over St. Joseph's at the Palestra.

La Salle was led by Rasual Butler, who scored 19 points and grabbed eight rebounds. Victor Thomas added 17 points and 11 rebounds, while Donnie Carr chipped in with 11 points.

With the win, the Explorers finished their Big 5 season with a 2-2 record. They also extended their winning streak to three over the Hawks.

The Hawks, who were led by Andre Howard's 12 points and 12 rebounds, shot only 30% for the game. St. Joseph's was without its leading scorer, Marvin O'Connor, who was suspended for the game because he had been ejected for fighting in the Hawks previous game.

The Explorers dropped a four-point decision to Fordham in the Bronx. The 74-70 final score tells you how close the game was.

The biggest lead the Explorers held was four points, the biggest margin the Rams had was nine points.

For the Rams, it was a tale of two halves. The first half they were carried by Jason Harris' 14 points on 5-of-11 shooting. In the second half, the Rams were buoyed by Teremun Johnson and Alejandro Olivares who combined for 19 points in the half.

The Explorers on the other hand were balanced throughout. Rasual Butler and Donnie Carr led the way with 22 and 20 points respectively. Both players shot 7-of-19 from the field, with Butler nailing 5-of-11 from three-point range. Victor Thomas added 12 points and a career-high 14 rebounds.

The Explorers fell 71-60 to Xavier. After exchanging wins on each others home courts last season, the two teams won on the road this year. It was the Explorers first-ever win in Cincinnati and the Musketeers first-ever win in the Tom Gola Arena. Xavier's last win in Philadelphia over the Explorers came in the First Union Spectrum.

Xavier placed four players in double-figures led by Darnell Williams' 16 points. The Explorers were led by senior Donnie Carr's 20 points.

The flow of the game changed at 4:23 of the first half. La Salle's Garrett Bragg hit Xavier's Kevin Frey with what was determined to be a flagrant elbow, causing Frey's to bleed. This led to a 21-5 Xavier run that extended into the second half. This run turned the Explorers' 26-18 lead into a 39-31 Xavier lead early in the second half.

Bragg was ejected from the game, and suspended for the following game, while Frey returned in the second half with seven stitches in his head.

La Salle dropped their first overtime contest of the season, 96-86, to Virginia Tech.

Senior Donnie Carr did his best to keep the Explorers in the game scoring a season-high 32 points. Carr had help from Rasual Butler (22 points), Victor Thomas (14 points), and Julian Blanks (13 points).

La Salle was toppled by the heroics of Hokies guard Brian Chase. Chase nailed four three-pointers in the final two minutes to help the Hokies erase a 12-point deficit. In overtime, Chase and Dennis Mims scored four points each as the Hokies scored the first 12 points of overtime.

The loss overshadowed the excellent individual performance by Carr and a season-high shooting effort for the team. Carr buried 10-of-12 shots from the field, 6-of-6 from the three-point arc, and 6-of-8 from the free throw line on his way to 32 points.

Also hidden in the loss were season-highs of 54.7% shooting from the field, 15 three-pointers, and 86 points.

Senior guard Donnie Carr closed out the home portion of his La Salle career by leading the Explorers to a 67-58 victory over visiting Duquesne.

Carr said afterwards, "My first practice four years ago seems like yesterday. It's hard to believe my career is almost over." Carr finished with 18 points and a season-high nine assists. Carr's former teammate at Roman Catholic - Rasual Butler - finished with a team-high 21 points and eight rebounds, and Victor Thomas added 14 points and eight rebounds.

La Salle opened the second half on an 18-5 run over the first 8 1/2 minutes. The Explorers buried four three-pointers during that stretch, and were 6-of-12 in the half. Head coach Speedy Morris said after the game, "We are very happy to go out with a win. It is sad to see Donnie's career closing, but he's been great for us."

Duquesne was led by former Villanova center Simon Ogunlesi, who scored 21 points on 9-of-13 shooting.

ATLANTIC 10

Happy Anniversary!

The 2000-01 season marks the 25th anniversary season of the Atlantic 10 Conference and although it is a time to look back and reflect, it is more a time to look ahead to a glorious future.

However, let's not belittle the past. When one looks back, it is with pride. The past 24 years have seen the Atlantic 10 grow from a humble beginning to where it stands now as one of the most diverse and broad-based athletic affiliations in the nation. And for that very reason, the future remains brighter than ever.

The institutions which today make up the Atlantic 10 Conference are committed to providing a broad-based, competitive athletic environment without sacrificing the high ideals of scholarship and sportsmanship. The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, St. Bonaventure University, St. Joseph's University, Temple University, and Xavier University each offer a rich blend of proud academic and athletic traditions to form an impressive athletic alliance. And next year this affiliation is more greatly enhanced with the addition of the University of Richmond.

"Over the last 24 years, the Atlantic 10 has had many ups and downs," says commissioner Linda Bruno, who has helped guide the Conference to prestige unequalled in league history. "When you look back, there have been many, many more good times than not. We are proud of our past and excited about our future. Our institutions have made a commitment to providing the best possible experience for our student-athletes and we look forward to doing just that today, tomorrow, and beyond."

The success Atlantic 10 teams and individuals enjoyed last season was highlighted by three men's and women's basketball teams advancing to the NCAA Tournament. For the men, Dayton, St. Bonaventure, and Temple earned bids; for the women, George Washington, St. Joseph's, and Xavier went to the tournament.

In addition, the Xavier men advanced to the NIT and the Dayton and Virginia Tech women qualified for the WNIT. Other teams to qualify for NCAA Tournaments last year include the Massachusetts field hockey team, the Rhode Island men's golf team, the Massachusetts women's rowing team, the Rhode Island men's soccer team, the Dayton women's soccer team, the Massachusetts softball team, the Temple volleyball team, and the Virginia Tech baseball and men's and women's tennis teams.

Individual highlights include Atlantic 10 men's basketball Player of the Year Pepe Sanchez of Temple being named a third-team Associated Press All-America; George Washington's SirValiant Brown and St. Joseph's Angela Zampella garnering basketball honorable mention All-America honors; rowers Bernadette Marten of Dayton and Francesca Beaudoin of Massachusetts being named to the All-America team; Mandy Mosby of Massachusetts being one of six finalists for American Award, which is awarded to the nation's top female gymnast; Massachusetts' Anke Bruemmer earning Brandi Cross of UMass garnering third-team softball acclaim; and George Washington pitcher Greg Conden being named to the TPX freshman All-America squad. In all, 280 teams have represented the Atlantic 10 Conference in postseason play since the 1976-77 season.

Atlantic 10 student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. The Atlantic 10 sponsors several academic awards programs, including Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which honored an Atlantic 10 record 1,562 student-athletes with a 3.0 grade point average or better this past year. The league also cites a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and awards a pair of postgraduate scholarships to both male and female student-athletes who express a desire to continue their education.

The genesis of this tradition of success can be traced to March 2, 1975, when eight university representatives met in Harrisburg, PA, to discuss the formation of a new collegiate basketball association. A similar meeting was also held on May 23 of that year with the final formation of the Eastern Collegiate Basketball League announced on August 13, 1975. The NCAA granted allied affiliation status upon the ECBL on October 15, 1975 and granted the league an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament on June 17, 1976.

The ECBL began operation at the start of the 1976-77 season with Duquesne, George Washington, Massachusetts, Penn State, Pittsburgh, Rutgers, Villanova, and West Virginia as its charter members. Several changes happened quickly in the ECBL, the first coming in 1977-78 when the league changed its name to the Eastern Athletic Association - better known as the Eastern 8 - to reflect its changing mission. That year, the Eastern 8 became more than a basketball league as the men's sports of baseball, cross country, golf, swimming, and tennis were added to the championship schedule.

The next major change came in 1981 when the office of the commissioner was instituted. Leland Byrd, who had served as president and executive director of the league since its inception, as well as athletic director at West Virginia, was named the Conference's first commissioner and established the commissioner's office in Pittsburgh. Byrd guided the Eastern 8 through several membership changes as Rhode Island, St. Bonaventure, St. Joseph's, and Temple replaced Pittsburgh and Villanova. After membership stabilized, the Eastern 8 transformed into the Atlantic 10 Conference with Byrd orchestrating the drive to make the league more broad-based as the women's sports of basketball, gymnastics, softball, tennis, and volleyball were added to the championship slate.

In May 1984, Byrd resigned as commissioner and was replaced by Charlie Theokas, who remained at the Atlantic 10 for 15 and a half months, bringing the league to national consciousness with his "Think Atlantic 10" campaign. On December 31, 1985, Theokas resigned to accept the athletic director's position at Temple and was replaced by Ron Bertovich, who officially assumed the commissioner's position in May 1986 after serving as interim commissioner following Theokas' departure. In eight years as commissioner, Bertovich expanded the Conference staff to better meet the growing needs of the membership and established the Atlantic 10 Television Network, which has developed into a major regional outlet and has won three Emmy Awards. In addition, he oversaw further membership changes as Xavier was added to the league while Penn State, Rutgers, and West Virginia left.

Furthermore, he continued the league's emphasis on broad-based programs as the Atlantic 10 expanded its championship list with the additions of women's cross country, field hockey, men's and women's soccer, women's swimming & diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field, as well as the reinstitution of men's swimming & diving.

On April 13, 1994, Bertovich resigned his position to accept the job of vice president and general manager of Empire Sports Network in Buffalo. On June 14, 1994, Linda Bruno was officially introduced as the Atlantic 10's fourth commissioner. As commissioner, Bruno has strengthened the Atlantic 10's membership with the additions of Dayton, Fordham, La Salle, and Richmond, thus assuring the Conference's future. Bruno also negotiated a pair of television deals with ESPN which provides greater exposure for the Atlantic 10's athletic programs. She relocated the league office to Philadelphia, placing it in the center of the Atlantic 10's geographic footprint.

Under her leadership the Atlantic 10 has increased its championship schedule to 22 sports with the additions of women's rowing, men's and women's outdoor track & field, and women's lacrosse. Bruno also spearheaded the league's entrance into Division I football with the formation of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference in 1997. In addition, in an effort to recognize the athletic and academic achievements of all student-athletes, Bruno instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.0 gpa or better.

The Atlantic 10 Conference will crown champions in 22 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's gymnastics, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

ALL-TIME GREAT EXPLORERS

TOM GOLA
1954 Player of the Year

Tom Gola, plain and simple, put La Salle basketball on the map. Widely regarded as the premier college player of his time, Gola led the Explorers to the 1952 NIT and 1954 NCAA Championships. A scorer both inside and outside, he averaged 20.9 points and 19.0 rebounds in his four-year career. A three-time collegiate All-American, Gola played in the NBA with the Philadelphia and San Francisco Warriors and New York Knicks and was named All-Pro five times. Gola added to his La Salle glory as head coach of the 1968-69 Explorers who finished 23-1 and were the second ranked team in the nation.

Gola's Honors

- Named to Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts, in 1975
- Coach of the Year, New York and Philadelphia Sports Writers, 1969
- 1979 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award
- "Living Sports Legend", Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, 1985
- Madison Square Garden Hall of Fame
- Madison Square Garden All-Time Team
- Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame
- SPORT Magazine All-Time All-American Team
- Helms College Basketball Hall of Fame
- Big Five Hall of Fame, 1986 (Coach) & 2000 (pre-Big 5 inductee)

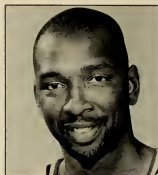

MICHAEL BROOKS
1980 Player of the Year

A consensus All-American, Brooks is the school's 2nd all-time leading scorer and 21th on the NCAA career scoring list. He held the school mark for most points in a game with 51 in a triple overtime contest at Brigham Young on Dec. 15, 1979, until Kareem Townes scored 52 against Loyola (Ill.) on Feb. 4, 1995, at the Philadelphia Civic Center. A spectacular combination of strength and grace highlighted Brooks' play as did his intelligence on the court. In 1980, Brooks was named Captain of the United States Olympic Team and East Coast Conference Player of the Year. Brooks played professionally with the NBA's San Diego Clippers, in Europe, and in the United States Basketball League.

Brooks' Honors

- United States Basketball Writers Association "Player of the Year" 1980
- Big Five "Player of the Year" 1978, 1980
- Big Five Hall of Fame 1986
- Widmer Eastern College "Player of the Year"

LIONEL SIMMONS
1990 Player of the Year

Simmons, the Explorers all-time leading scorer, continued the La Salle tradition of dominant players, winning every national Player of the Year award as an unanimous All-American in 1990. He is the 3rd leading scorer in NCAA history and the only player to score over 3,000 points (3,217) and pull down over 1,085 rebounds (1,429). Upon graduating he also held the NCAA record for consecutive games scoring in double figures with 115. Simmons owns the La Salle record book as the career leader in three categories. He also captained the 1989-90 Explorers, who set a single season La Salle record with 30 victories and whose 30-2 record was the best in Division I. Simmons retired from the NBA after seven seasons with the Sacramento Kings and now is involved in several business ventures in the Philadelphia/South Jersey area.

Simmons' Honors

- The 1990 John R. Wooden Award Eastman Kodak Award (NABC)
- Joe Lapchick Award (Basketball Hall of Fame) and the Naismith Award.
- The 1990 Player of the Year by: Associated Press, United Press International, U.S. Basketball Writers Association (Mercedes Benz Award), Basketball Weekly, World Almanac, ESPN, Cawood Leford Productions
- Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Player of the Year (1988-89-90)
- Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Year (1988-89-90)

THE 1954 NCAA CHAMPIONS

THE ROAD TO THE 1954 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

FIRST ROUND

La Salle 76, Fordham 74 (OT)

March 8, 1954

Buffalo Memorial Auditorium, Buffalo, NY

O'Malley's layup, off a pass from Gola, tied the game at 68 at the buzzer in regulation, and La Salle went on to capture the overtime victory. Gola finished with 28 points and 16 rebounds, and O'Malley added 13 points.

EASTERN REGIONAL SEMIFINAL

La Salle 88, North Carolina State 81

March 12, 1954

The Palestra, Philadelphia, PA

Gola and Singley each scored 26 points as the Explorers advanced to the Eastern Regional final with a win over the Atlantic Coast Champion Wolfpack. Gola also had 26 rebounds. The NCAA win was a repeat of an earlier La Salle triumph, 83-79, at North Carolina State.

EASTERN REGIONAL FINAL

La Salle 64, Navy 48

March 13, 1954

The Palestra, Philadelphia, PA

Gola again led the way with 22 points and 24 rebounds. A 22-8 scoring margin in the third period gave the Explorers a 43-29 lead going into the last 10 minutes. Singley had 16 points in the championship victory.

NATIONAL SEMIFINAL

La Salle 92, Penn State 54

March 19, 1954

Kansas City Municipal Auditorium,
Kansas City, MO

Blatcher, who had scored 25 points in the previous three games, matched Gola's total of 19 points in the NCAA semifinal victory over the Nittany Lions. Gola also had 17 rebounds as La Salle led from the opening tip. Coach Ken Loeffler was almost apologetic after the game, explaining, "We weren't very interesting but what can you do against a zone (defense)."

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

La Salle 92, Bradley 76

March 20, 1954

Auditorium, Kansas City, MO

Trailing 43-42 at halftime,

La Salle exploded for 30 points in the third period to open a 15-point lead and coast to the NCAA title. Gola scored 9 points. Blatcher 8 in the period. Blatcher, a 24-year-old sophomore Navy veteran, and Singley, another sophomore, each scored 23 points in the Championship game, while Gola again had as many points as rebounds (19). In the five NCAA Tournament games, Gola averaged 22.8 points and 20.4 rebounds; Singley averaged 17.2 points in the tournament, Blatcher 13.4, O'Malley 10.2, and Frank O'Hara, the only senior on the roster, 6.8. Gola was voted the tournament's Outstanding Player and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Singley.

LA SALLE BEATS BRADLEY 92-76 FOR NCAA TITLE

EXPLORERS WRAP UP GAME WITH 30-POINT
3RD PERIOD; 2 SCORING MARKS BROKEN

By Bob Vetrone

Of The Bulletin Sports Staff

Kansas City, Mo., March 20 — La Salle College, playing by far its greatest game of a long and successful season, roared to a 92-76 victory over Bradley tonight to bring Philadelphia its first NCAA basketball championship.

The Explorers, receiving sparkling performance from about a half dozen of its players, used a devastating 30-point third quarter to reach the highest pinnacle any local team has approached. Tom Gola, Charley Singley, Frank Blatcher, Fran O'Malley, Frank O'Hara — all took important parts in the triumph, which was turned into a runaway by that prolific third quarter.

In rolling to its 92-point total, La Salle broke the record for points in a championship game. The combined pointage of 168 also set a new record for the tourney final.

THE 1952 NIT CHAMPIONS

GOLA, GREKIN MVPs AS LA SALLE TOPS DAYTON TO WIN NIT CHAMPIONSHIP

In the early days of post-season basketball tournaments - in the late 1930s through the middle '50s - the National Invitation Tournament was at least on a par with, and perhaps superior to, the still-emerging NCAA Tournament. So, when the La Salle Explorers romped through Seton Hall, St. John's, Duquesne and Dayton to capture the 1952 championship, it was a feat of national basketball importance.

La Salle, coached by future Hall of Famer Ken Loeffler, had entered the NIT as an unseeded team and had to get by Seton Hall's powerful Pirates, led by seven-footer Walter Dukes and an exceptional guard in Richie Regan. But La Salle freshman Tom Gola and junior Fred Lehle hit for 30 and 25 points respectively, with Lehle pouring in 20 in the first half in an 80-76 Explorer victory.

Gola had 19 rebounds and six assists and junior Norm Grekin grabbed 15 boards. In a game that was described as one of the best in the NIT's 14-year history, the margin was never more than four points, as a capacity crowd of 18,422 wildly cheered on both teams in New York's old Madison Square Garden.

In the quarter-finals, Grekin, playing his way toward a share of tournament MVP honors with Gola, tallied 17 points and had 16 rebounds in a 51-45 victory over local favorite St. John's. And Grekin again played a big role in the 59-46 romp over the Sihugo Green-led Duquesne Dukes, rated by many as the top team in the tournament. Grekin had 21 points and 10 rebounds, Gola contributed 14 rebounds and 10 points and sophomore Jackie Moore added 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Then came the championship game against a tall and talented Dayton Flyers team, and it was no contest. Led by Gola, Lehle and play-making captain Buddy Donnelly, the Explorers built a 38-30 halftime lead, then wrapped up the title with a 37-34 second-half advantage to wrap it up, 75-64. Grekin, Gola and Moore were named to the All-Tournament team, and the Olympic Trials were just ahead.

At that time, the Olympic squad was picked from team trials rather than individuals as is done today. In those Trials, La Salle again defeated St. John's, 71-62, but bowed to Clyde Lovellette and the Kansas Jayhawks, 70-65, and fell before the Phillips Oilers, an AAU powerhouse.

Between the NIT and the Olympic Trials, the team, the school and the City of Philadelphia received notice from all around the country. And coach Loeffler had this praise for the team in an article that appeared in the La Salle Collegian:

"This was a new team, a young team, like a child in fact. It first had to walk. As any child would, it fell a few times. It gradually learned to walk, then to run. Against Seton Hall, it found it could jump as well as run."

And Ken could have added: "All the way to a national championship."

THE UNIVERSITY

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University is a private, comprehensive, coeducational institution committed to academic excellence and individualized attention in a values-oriented, inter-faith educational community.

Consistently ranked among the nation's top schools by U.S. News & World Report, Barron's, Money magazine, and The New York Times, La Salle has evolved from a liberal arts college into a comprehensive university of increasing national prominence.

Established by the Christian Brothers in 1863, La Salle is one of the oldest independent Roman Catholic institutions in the nation. It traces its roots to the patron saint of teachers, John Baptist de La Salle, a priest and educational innovator who founded the Christian Brothers in 17th century France. For over 300 years, the order has been known for its dedicated teaching and devotion to students.

As one of seven Christian Brother colleges and universities in America, and 72 around the world, La Salle prepares students for careers, enhances professional capabilities, and promotes personal growth in the unique Lasallian tradition.

Starting out as a one-building academy in downtown Philadelphia, La Salle is now located on a picturesque 100-acre campus in Northwest Philadelphia - just six miles from the cultural, social and historic attractions of Center City. Two convenient satellite campus sites are located in Northeast Philadelphia and Newtown, Bucks County.

In an area increasingly dominated by large public institutions, La Salle's small class size and intimate campus provide the ideal environment for friendly student-teacher interaction and individualized attention.

With 3,150 undergraduate and 1,500 graduate students, most classes average 20 students with a student-faculty ratio of 14-to-1. Day and evening faculty number some 400, and the University offers concentrations in close to 60 academic areas.

In addition to the undergraduate degree programs offered in the School of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Nursing, and Continuing Studies, La Salle offers 10 Master's degree programs and a Doctoral program that was introduced in 1998.

More recently, the University has launched a series of new undergraduate programs in a continuous effort to integrate the latest technology into the curricula. These include DArt (Digital Arts and Multimedia Design), ISBT (Integrated Science, Business and Technology), the E-Commerce Institute, and Speech-Language-Hearing Science.

A nationally-recognized Honors Program, praised by the National Collegiate Honors Council for being "a very special sort not available to larger, general universities," is available for La Salle's most gifted learners.

La Salle students come from more than 700 public and private schools from 25 states, mostly in the northeastern part of the United States, and from approximately 20 foreign countries. The University confers more than 1,100 degrees annually.

Academically, La Salle's graduates have distinguished themselves in the nation's best graduate, law, and medical schools. And they boast an extraordinary record for winning Fulbright Fellowships and other prestigious postgraduate awards. Over the past 20 years, 96 percent of those students who were recommended by La Salle were offered entry into medical schools. And a national survey ranks La Salle in the top 4 percent among private undergraduate institutions whose graduates go on to earn Ph.Ds.

Among several recent on-campus developments is the $6.3 million renovation of the Hayman Center, home of La Salle's athletic department. This facility showcases the 4,000-seat Tom Gola basketball arena, a 1,700-seat Olympic-size swimming pool and diving area, three regulation-sized basketball courts, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts, and a medical training area.

Having grown considerably in the last decade, La Salle looks forward to a future built on commitment to quality education, service to students, and overall excellence.

BROTHER MICHAEL MCGINNIS, FSC

Brother Michael J. McGinniss, FSC, Ph.D., became LaSalle University's 28th president on July 1, 1999. He previously had been a member of the school's religion department and for five years was president of Christian Brothers University in Memphis, TN.

A native Philadelphian, Brother McGinniss joined the Christian Brothers in 1965 and graduated Maxima Cum Laude from La Salle in 1970 with a degree in English. He obtained his Master's and Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Notre Dame.

From 1970 to 1974 he was a member of the English and Religion Departments at South Hills Catholic High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. While a graduate student at the University of Notre Dame he taught undergraduate courses in the Theology Department and was an instructor in the residence hall training seminars and assistant rector of Grace Hall.

His first teaching experience at La Salle was as a visiting instructor in the Graduate Religion program in the summer of 1978. He was also an assistant professor at Washington Theological Union from 1979-84. From 1986 to 1990 he was a visiting instructor at Loyola University's Summer Institute of Pastoral Studies.

In 1984 Brother McGinniss joined the faculty at La Salle on a full-time basis, eventually reaching the rank of full professor in 1993. Recognized by the DeLaSalle Christian Brothers for his qualities as a leader, he attended La session internationale des études lasalliennes (a program of study of Lasallian spirituality) in Rome in 1991. He became Chair of La Salle's Religion Department that year and the following year he received the Lindback Award for Distinguished Teaching. Also in 1992 he was appointed Vice President of La Salle University Corporation. In 1995 he became a member of La Salle's Board of Trustees.

In 1994 he became president of Christian Brothers University, in Memphis. Under his leadership, undergraduate enrollment and retention rates were increased; a Master's of Education program was established; the Athletic Department joined the NCAA Division II Gulf South Conference; new residence halls were constructed; enhancements were made to science labs and facilities; the school's engineering departments were re-accredited; an upgrade of information technology systems throughout the campus was implemented; and the Center for Global Enterprise was founded. He also played a key role in the school's 125th anniversary celebration.

His academic area of expertise is pastoral theology - which includes history and theology of ministry and methods and models of theological reflection; Roman Catholic and Protestant Ecclesiologies; social ethics; and Lasallian Spirituality. He is the author and editor of numerous articles and books in this area.

Brother McGinniss has served on numerous boards and civic groups, including: Member, Economic Club of Memphis; National Conference of Christians and Jews, Memphis Chapter; Memphis Brooks Museum of Art; The Memphis Catholic Diocesan Development Committee; Memphis in May Country Selection Committee; and Christian Brothers High School, Memphis, Tenn. He is a past member of the Ethics Committee of the Board at Albert Einstein Medical Center, Philadelphia, PA.

His professional memberships include Catholic Theological Society of America, American Academy of Religion, and College Theology Society.

DR. THOMAS BRENNAN

Dr. Thomas Brennan has ushered in a new era in La Salle Athletics since his appointment as the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation on September 18, 1997.

He guides the school's 23-sport Division I athletic program as the university enters its sixth season in the Atlantic 10 Conference, and as football enters its fourth season since its revival, and second in the MAAC Football League. Dr. Brennan has also been instrumental in facilitating the return of the Explorer basketball teams to their full-time home court at the renovated Tom Gola Arena in the Hayman Center.

"La Salle has a proud and respected tradition of intercollegiate competition and I am excited to lead the department into the next millennium," Brennan said. "You must have integrity in your program. You must have a program which emphasizes the educational mission of athletics. You must also strive for excellence in the athletic arena. I know that these are all important at La Salle and that is what attracted me."

Since coming to La Salle, Brennan has reorganized many areas within the Athletic Department, including the formation of the Explorer Club, a fundraising/booster organization and the introduction of an active Corporate Partners/Athletic Sponsorship program. Membership in the Explorer Club has more than doubled, as has program revenues. During his tenure, the Philadelphia Big 5 has been rejuvenated, the Tom Gola Arena has been dedicated, the Alumni Hall of Athletics' area has been renovated and many new initiatives have been introduced in an effort to enhance the overall program.

Under Brennan's guidance, La Salle Athletics has established a commitment to Youth Outreach and Community Service. La Salle was selected, by the NCAA, also as one of only 20 schools to participate in a national program with the Big Brothers/Big Sisters Organization (Campus Pals). Brennan is a member of the Board of Directors for the Big Brothers/Big Sisters. He is also a member of the Executive Committee for the Philadelphia Sports Congress and has served as the chair for the Atlantic 10 Conference Post-Graduate Scholarship Committee, Women's Basketball Committee, and on the Student-Athlete Advisory Council. Dr. Brennan is also a member of the Executive Committee for the National Consortium for Academics and Sport.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-97, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference. During his administration, graduation rates for student-athletes more than doubled, participation by women in intercollegiate athletics nearly doubled, and the university was recognized for Title IX compliance efforts by the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education. In addition, annual athletic contributions increased three-fold, while $6 million was raised for a new field house and administrative complex.

Prior to being the Athletic Director at San Jose, Brennan was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Maryland from 1986-90. During that time, Brennan successfully moved Loyola from the Northeast Conference into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Greyhounds became national contenders in men's and women's lacrosse and men's soccer and competed for National Championships in each of these sports. While at Loyola, Brennan was a member of the Board of Directors for the Maryland Special Olympics.

From 1980-86, Brennan worked at the University of New Mexico, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then Associate Athletics Director for Advancement. At the time of his departure, he oversaw the fundraising, media relations, sponsorship, marketing, sales and athletic alumni efforts. Part of his duties included establishing a statewide radio and television network. Prior to that, he oversaw the NCAA compliance program for the school and handled the academic support area of the department. Brennan also earned a faculty position in the school's Graduate Program in Athletic Administration.

His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Academic Coordinator for the athletic department, serving as a liaison with the school's central administration, deans, department heads and coaches. Syracuse was recognized at the time by the NCAA as having one of the top 10 student-athlete graduation rates in the country.

A 1973 graduate of LeMoyné College in Syracuse, NY, Brennan went on to earn Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen are the parents of Maggie (12), Tim (10), and Kate (6).

Clockwise: Ellen, Kate, Tim, Maggie, and Tom Brennan

JOHN LYONS, ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

John Lyons is in his 19th year as a member of the Athletic Department. For the first 17 years in the department, he served as the Head Swimming Coach. During his tenure, La Salle earned national recognition and distinction. With Lyons at the helm, the Explorers won 11 conference titles.

Lyons was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in February 1999. His main duties include Athletic Budgets, Compliance Services, Personnel, Facilities, and Internal Operations. He also oversees the Athletic Training and Fitness Programs.

Lyons won coaching awards throughout his coaching career, including three Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year awards and was an eight-time recipient of the Coach of the Year Award when La Salle competed in the MAAC. Lyons amassed over 100 dual meet victories in his career. While serving as an assistant swimming coach at Penn State, Lyons earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration. He also holds a Master's degree in Education from Bucknell. Lyons resides in Maple Glen, PA with his wife, Jody and their three sons, Daniel, Jeffrey, and Zachary.

PETER D'ORAZIO, ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Peter J. D'Orazio has been with the La Salle athletic department family since 1982. Entering his 19th year, Peter is Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement. His responsibilities include coordination of the Corporate Sponsorship Program, the La Salle Explorer Club, Project TeamWork (the Athletic Department's youth outreach program), Athletic Communications, and all marketing aspects of the athletic program. As the Executive Director of the Explorer Club, he is responsible for all fundraising efforts of the athletic department.

A graduate of La Salle College in 1981, D'Orazio majored in Criminal Justice. He went on to complete his Master's in Recreation, Administration, and Supervision from Temple University.

D'Orazio's career at La Salle started in 1982 when he was appointed Assistant Facility Director. In 1985, he became the Director of Intramurals and in 1989 was given the additional responsibilities as Ticket Manager. In 1997, he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Campus Recreation and Promotions, and in the spring of 1998, he assumed his current position as Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement.

In addition to sports, D'Orazio lists cooking, music, gardening, and golf as his interests. Currently he resides in Glenside with his wife, Fran, and their children - Rebecca (13), Annaliese (12), and Celeste (10).

JEANNINE CALHOUN, SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Jeannine Calhoun is now in her third year as the Senior Woman Administrator for the La Salle University Athletic Department. Calhoun, formerly Cridge, now serves as the head coach for La Salle women's soccer and played for the Explorers from 1989-92.

As the Senior Woman Administrator, Calhoun is responsible for assisting in overseeing the compliance and eligibility of the student-athletes.

A 1993 La Salle graduate, Calhoun was a 1992 Rhodes Scholar nominee and participated in the Campus Ministry in its AODS Outreach Program and on the Homeless Committee. She was awarded the Richard Lantz Memorial Award for the English student who most exemplifies the qualities necessary to become an effective teacher. She was also a member of the Lambda Tau International Honors Society for literature students.

Jeannine was married in November 1998 to Chris Calhoun and they reside in Ewing, NJ.

DR. ANNETTE O'CONNOR, FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Annette K. O'Connor enters her eighth year as the Faculty Athletics Representative for La Salle University. Since arriving at La Salle in 1981, O'Connor has participated in a variety of activities on campus, which include teaching, research and athletics.

O'Connor arrived at La Salle University in 1981, as a professor in the Department of Biology. Since her arrival, she has taught Physiology, Histology and Non-Majors Human Biology. In 1991, she began her career in Athletics as La Salle's Faculty Athletics Representative. The same year she joined the Faculty Athletics Representative Association and served on the Executive Board. In the past ten years, she has also become involved in other aspects for the NCAA. From 1993-99, she served on the Athletics Certification Committee of the NCAA.

In 1997, she began a three-year tenure on the NCAA Core Course Review Committee.

She received her Bachelor's Degree in Biology from Benedict College. She received her Ph.D. in Physiology and Toxicology at John Hopkins University. Annette is married to Lee O'Connor and she has three children, Hillary, Eric and Justin. Hillary (1995) and Eric (1996) are La Salle University graduates, while Justin graduated from the University of Miami in 1998.

STUDENT-ATHLETE PROGRAMS

ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES:

La Salle University student-athletes involved in intercollegiate athletics are in a very unique position. They are here in the role of both student and athlete and it is essential that they meet the demands of each role in order to experience success at La Salle.

The Program of Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes is designed to assist student-athletes in their adjustment to their unique role. Through academic advising and essential support services, the active involvement of the student-athlete in the educational process is encouraged and the balance between academic and athletic achievement is fostered.

OBJECTIVES

- Encourage excellence in academics and athletics so that the individual's experience at La Salle is rich and rewarding.
- Assist the student-athlete in balancing academic and athletic demands toward the goal of providing a diverse and well-rounded educational experience
- Provide an environment where responsibility and growth are fostered so the student-athlete can gain independence and experience achievement in all facets of life.
- Enhance the student-athlete's years at La Salle through informed advice and the utilization of campus resources and enrichment programs.
- Assist freshmen and transfer students in their first semester in the adjustment to the demands of college through orientation programs.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The course selection sheet of each student-athlete is reviewed prior to each semester to ensure compliance with La Salle and NCAA policies. The student-athlete can receive assistance in curriculum options, in choosing a major, and in processing the declaration of a major and/or minor.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

The La Salle University Athletic Training staff includes three full-time staff members and are supplemented by coverage from NovaCare. The three Full-time staff members are Bill Gerzabek, M.S. A.T.C., Jennifer Chu, MEd A.T.C., and Kristen DiCostanzo, MEd A.T.C. NovaCare is utilized as a supplement to our athletic training coverage and physical therapy services. Two members of NovaCare assist in the coverage of all Athletic teams.

Some of the services our Athletic Trainers provide includes the use of Whirlpools, Electrical Stimulation, Ultrasound, Upper Boddy ergometer, treadmill, bikes, and a slideboard. The athletic training staff will also be able to utilize the newly, remodeled Independence Blue Cross Fitness Center for rehabilitation purposes.

The athletic trainers also work in conjunction with the the Student Health center and the Counseling Center. We also have a working relationship with three orthopedic doctors - Dr. Anthony Balsamo, Dr. Marc Manzione, Dr. Seth Krum, and a family practice physician, Dr. Mark McKenna.

BILL GERZABEK, HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Bill Gerzabek is in his 12th year as Head Athletic Trainer. In this time, Bill has been at the helm of some major changes to the La Salle University Athletic Training Room.

Prior to coming to La Salle in 1988, Bill served as Assistant Athletic Trainer at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. for two years. This followed a Graduate Assistantship at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia in affiliation with Old Dominion University where Bill earned a Master of Science degree in Education with a concentration in Athletic Training.

A native of Connecticut, Bill earned his Bachelor's degree from Central Connecticut State University in New Britain, Connecticut. Bill served as a student Athletic Trainer under his mentor Carl Krien.

In addition to an array of other related Athletic Training experience, Bill has also made his mark at the head of the classroom.

There was an overwhelming enrollment for "Prevention and Care of Athletic Injuries", where Bill served as adjunct professor in his La Salle University teaching debut in the spring of 1996. His class is offered every spring. Register early; it fills up fast.

Gerzabek lent his expertise to the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. There he served as a volunteer Athletic Trainer to the resident weight lifting athletes. He met and worked with Olympic athletes Wes Barnett and Tom Gough as well as Olympic hopeful Tara Nott. Other responsibilities included assisting in the coverage and treatment of boxing, men's gymnastics and the USA men's and women's volleyball junior and national teams.

JIM GORMAN STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Jim Gorman is in his first season as the Strength and Conditioning coordinator for the men's basketball team. Prior to coming to La Salle, Gorman had worked at a variety of locations in the Philadelphia area.

Gorman began his professional career 1978 when he was the manager of two fitness centers in the Reading, PA area. While working in Reading, he coached three individual Pennsylvania State Champions, two powerlifting and one in body building. He has been a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) since 1986 and earned his Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist credential (CSCS) in the national exams in 1987.

In 1987, he joined Pat Croce's Sports Physical Therapists in Bala Cynwyd and assisted with conditioning the Philadelphia 76ers from 1987 through 1997. He was the Sixers Strength and Conditioning coach from 1993 through 1997. He also has worked with the Philadelphia Rage during the 1997-98 season.

He was named the Philadelphia Magazine's "Best Of Philly" for personal trainers in 1996. Some of his past clients have included the likes of: boxers Meldrick Taylor and Tommy Morrison, and basketball players Eddie Jones, Aaron McKie, Doug Overton, Matt Maloney, Jamie Feick, Michelle Marciniak, and La Salle's Donnie Carr.

Gorman lived in Albany, NY, Boston, MA and Madison, WI growing up, is a 1977 graduate of West Chester University. He has a BS in Health and Physical Education, and was a member of the Football and Powerlifting teams.

DIRECTIONS TO CAMPUS

From - Northern New Jersey:

Take New Jersey Turnpike south to Exit 6. Follow signs for the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Take the PA Turnpike to exit 27, Route 611 south. Take 611 south approximately six miles into Philadelphia. Follow 611 to intersection of Broad and Olney, where you will take a right turn onto Olney. Follow Olney to third light, the Main Parking lot, and take a left into the lot. This will be where the locker rooms are in the Hayman Center. You can only enter the building from the parking lot side. If you are coming from Broad and Olney and going to the field, take a left at the second light, 20th Street, and the field is one-half block down the hill on your left.

From - Northeastern Pennsylvania

Take the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike south to the Turnpike Eastbound. Follow the Turnpike to Exit 27 and follow the signs for Route 611 South and continue with directions from Northern New Jersey.

From - Western Pennsylvania:

Take the Pennsylvania Turnpike Eastbound to Exit 24 - Valley Forge - Route 76 East. Follow 76 East to Route 1 North - the Roosevelt Expressway. Continue with local directions below.

From - Southern New Jersey:

Take Route 295 North to Route 42. Follow Route 42 over the Walt Whitman Bridge. From the bridge, take Route 76 West. Follow to Route 1 North - Roosevelt Expressway. Continue with local directions below.

From - Delaware and points South:

Take Interstate 95 into Pennsylvania. At the Philadelphia International Airport, follow signs for Route 76 West. Take 76 West to Route 1 North - Roosevelt Expressway. Continue with local directions below.

Local Directions:

From Route 76 - Schuylkill Expressway

Take 76 to the Route 1 North - Roosevelt Expressway exit. Follow Route 1 North to the Broad Street exit. Turn left onto Broad Street and go to the third traffic light - Belfield Avenue. Turn left onto Belfield and follow to the seventh traffic light. The seventh light will be 20th Street - take a right onto 20th. Follow halfway up the hill and the field is on your right. To get to gymnasium (where locker rooms are), follow 20th Street to the top of the hill. At the top of the hill, turn left onto Olney Avenue. Proceed one-half block to traffic light. Turn left into main parking lot and the Hayman Center is on your right.

From Route 1 South - Roosevelt Boulevard

Follow Route 1 south to the 5th Street Exit. Turn right onto 5th and follow to Olney Ave. Take a left onto Olney Ave. Follow Olney Ave. to the traffic light at 20th Street. Take a left to get to the field or go straight to get to the Hayman Center, which is at the next traffic light.
